

Do old people sleep a lot? No, I don't think so. Old people get up pretty early. They usually get up at 5:00 or 5:30. After they get up, they make breakfast and do some housework. like sweeping the floor. like sweeping the floor. they also like to go to the park and do some morning exercise. like playing taichi, taking a walk and doing some square dancing. so um, yeah, old people generally don't sleep a lot.

I'm going to talk about the time when I drove to Inner Mongolia.

I'm going to talk about the time when I waited for a friend for a long time.

I'm going to talk about the time when I spoke English with an American.

I'm going to talk about the time when I walked for a long time on the Great Wall.

It was 3 months ago, on a Wednesday, if I remember correctly=if my memory serves me correctly.
It was 3 months ago, on the 25th, to be exact.

At that time, I was super busy with my studies, so I felt pretty stressed every day. Then, one day, I really wanted to go somewhere to unwind. I decided to go hiking on the Great Wall.

I went there with a very good friend of mine, 敬明. You know, we're pretty tight and we both enjoy hiking, so we just went there together.

I'm going to talk about the time when I drove to Inner Mongolia. It was two years, during the summer holiday, to be exact. At that time, I had a two-month holiday, so I had a lot of time to kill, I just decided to drive somewhere for fun. I chose to go to Inner Mongolia with my best friend, 小韩. I'm from Beijing, so it took us over 10 hours to drive to Inner Mongolia. We really had a blast during this journey.

I'm going to talk about the time when I had a long walk on the Great Wall. It was 3 months ago, on a Friday, if I remember correctly. At that time, I had just finished a very important test, so I really wanted to go somewhere to unwind. I chose to go hiking on the Great Wall. I went to 慕田峪 Great Wall with my parents and it took us over 2 hours to get there by car. After we arrived, we walked for 4 hours there.

We did loads of things while walking on the Wall. Firstly, we took hundreds of photos because the views there were quite spectacular. In addition, we had a picnic on the wall. We had some hamburgers and some French Fries. Actually, we bought them before going there. Oh, I forgot to mention that I even met 敬明's dad. You know, 敬明 is a very good friend of mine and his dad is a really knowledgeable person. I often go and visit them. So it was a coincidence that I met him there.

In terms of how I felt about this long walk ...without a doubt, I felt extremely worn-out after finishing the walk, but what was more important was that I felt a great sense of achievement. I was on cloud nine that day.
